Reading Well for Dementia

This collection is part of a national scheme created by the Reading Agency in partnership with health professionals. The dementia collection includes titles for those who have received a diagnosis, those caring for someone with dementia and even a picture book for children addressing the topic of having a family member with the condition. The collection as a whole is a mix of fiction, non-fiction and lived experience as well as a series of specially created picture books on topics such as Family Life, Beside the Seaside, Family, Shopping, Pets which are designed to stimulate reminiscence.

Memory Lane Bags (Inspire) and Memory Packs (City)

These are loanable packs of resources to stimulate reminiscence and conversation, often on a particular topic such as holidays, particular decades, work, sport etc. They may include things to listen to or watch and an activity such as a jigsaw as well as images and in the case of Memory Lane Bags objects to hold. They are free to borrow from libraries for carers or health professionals. City libraries offer a home delivery service to care settings for use by care staff. Inspire also offer some larger Adult Care Cases for use in care homes, day centres and community settings.
